

Inclusion Coaching

Professional development for inclusive schools.

A specialized and differentiated approach to learning for school staff — from administrators to paraprofessionals.

- Create an inclusive school climate and culture.
- Support all students in the general education classroom.
- Implement co-teaching effectively.
- Design a master schedule that supports students.
- Provide ongoing support for staff throughout the school year.
- And so much more...

Every community has different needs, that is why Inclusion Coaching provided by C.A.S.E. is designed for your unique needs.

Starting with walk-throughs, staff interviews and questionnaires, C.A.S.E. works with school/district leadership to design a professional development program that fits your needs, time, and budget.
